

What LMFV does, and why we need your support.

1. Since 2007, LMFV has:

- Provided free care and counseling services to veterans, military contractors and their family member-without caveat*.
- Provided congregations, counselors, therapists and other caregivers with training and resources to help them as they minister to veterans, military contractors and their family members.

*We recognize anyone who has served one or more days in the military as a veteran, and serve them regardless of their discharge status.

2. LMFV does not accept any funding or support from the government. Our ability to provide veterans and their family members with free programs and services is a direct result of the generous donations made by our friends and ministry partners.

- LMFV is a 501(c)(3) faith-based non-profit ministry.

- LMFV is a recognized Service organization of the:

- North American Lutheran Church, and Lutheran Church Missouri Synod
